Best of British Week

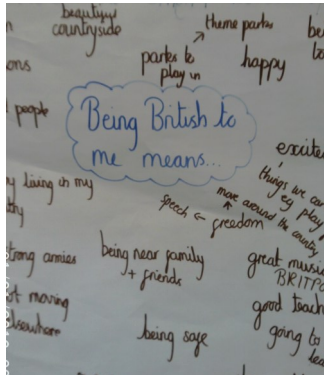
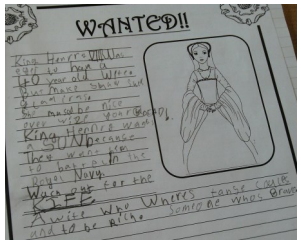
During Best of British week, the children in year 3 learned all about past rulers of Britain, in particular Henry VIII.





They also learned about the artist Hockney and painted in his style.

The children in year 4 learned all about the royal family and about the artist L.S Lowry.

The children in year 5 applied their English skills and wrote a non-chronological report all about Britain in the nineties and the noughties. They also learned county dancing and how to print using polystyrene tiles. Their printing was based on the work of the artist William Morris.

Best of British Day was on Friday 20th November and the children ands staff came into school dressed in red, white and blue or as a famous British person. At lunch time the children Enjoyed a great British favourite, fish and chips or toad in the hole supplied by HC3S. In the afternoon the whole school got together for an afternoon tea of scones and jam which was followed with a sing song of a war time songs.

Promoting British Values
Autumn Term 2015/16

The Children in year 6 linked their learning to their war time theme and Britain since 1930. They also learned to play games like 'Oranges and Lemons'. They also learned about the British pop culture and enjoyed making record sleeves.

British values

All children learned about the British values and how at Rowner Junior School we have these too. The five British values are:

Democracy

The rule of law

Individual liberty

Mutual respect

Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs
